DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Szajnowski.

Szajnowski's Fig. 10 shows a method of uniforming physical random numbers by inputting a plurality of physical random numbers to a random number holding device (the feeding of the outputs of elements 12 and 104 to elements 52 and 108) followed by exclusive Oring the output of the holding device (effected by XOR gates, 110).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1 the phrase "address of a selector" is indefinite. The phrases "the residual part", claim 1; "the operation", claim 4; "the other register", claim 6; "the register for which the reading is ended", claim 6; "said noise source", claims 15 and 16", "said mixer", claims 15 and 16; "the former stage", claim 15; "the former or later stage", claim 16; "said integration circuit", claim 17; and “the latter stage”; lack clear antecedent basis. The elements of claim 7 fail to be clearly related to the “control circuit” of claim 6. Claim 13 lacks meaning. The last two lines of claim 19 and the last three lines of claim 22 are the recitation of function without adequate structural basis. Claims 2 and 21 are improper dependent claims because dependent claims must include all the limitation of the corresponding independent claim, i.e. note the “instead of” language.

Specification

4. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.
5. It is improper to reference claims in the specification.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
